Shalom and welcome to LimmudBoston 2014, our annual volunteer-driven celebration of lifelong Jewish learning.

Today's conference offers more than 80 incredible sessions on a huge array of topics – from music, storytelling and hands-on art to text study, discussions about Israel, social justice, spirituality, and more. Follow your passion or explore something new!

We have two new offerings this year: LimmudNEXT are sessions presented by members of the young professional community. Sandwich Sessions at 12:45 are enticing lunchtime teaching moments. Discover the musical and storytelling talents of today's concert from 1-2:15PM.

For families, we are so pleased that Kesher Newton has joined us to run Camp Limmud.

As exciting as today’s programs are, LimmudBoston is really about lifelong Jewish learning. See the Encore options, listed under session descriptions, for concrete suggestions to follow up on what you learn today.

In the coming year, look for new LimmudBoston Pop-Ups: program offerings throughout the area. Watch for announcements of Pop-Ups on the South Shore, in Worcester, in the Pioneer Valley, as well as the Berkshires next summer. Keep your eye on www.LimmudBoston.org for more information.

Special thank you to the LimmudBoston 2014 Program Team, to Board Chair Terri Swartz Russell, to our team leaders, to our presenters, and to all the other volunteers, whose names you will find in this program book.

Volunticipate! Today's events could not happen without scores of dedicated volunteers who give their time and energy to make today possible. Join a planning team now!

And mark your calendars for LimmudBoston 2015 –December 6, 2015.

Our Mission Statement:

LimmudBoston is both the annual, volunteer-driven conference celebrating Jewish life and the resulting collaborative community that our events inspire.

Limmud International Core Values:
Learning | Expanding Jewish Horizons | Enabling Connections | Participation | Empowerment Diversity | Community and Mutual Responsibility | Respect | Arguments for the Sake of Heaven | Religious Observance

LimmudBoston honors the core values of Limmud International. We celebrate learning, diversity and community involvement. We honor tradition and explore expanding our Jewish horizon. We value all members of the community. We foster connections and encourage participation.

Core Value: Learning
- Everyone should be a student and anyone can be a teacher. Learning embraces personal development, knowledge and skills.
- Learning changes people, inspires action and opens new worlds.
- We encourage the creation of a learning environment in which people are able to reflect and grow.
- There are many inspirations that can offer opportunities for learning.

Core Value: Enabling Connections
- We aim to create opportunities for communities and individuals to connect.
- We recognize the strength of providing a space where spiritual, emotional and intellectual connections are made.

Core Value: Participation
- Volunteerism is a key feature of almost everything we do.
- We are all responsible for each other and for the communities we create – everyone has an important contribution to make.
- We encourage participants to take an active part in all we do.

Core Value: Respect
- No one is more important than anyone else.
- We expect all participants to be respectful of one another, and to recognize that all volunteers are also participants.
- Personal attacks are not acceptable in any Limmud context, especially within sessions at events.

Core Value: Empowerment
- We inspire people to be ambitious about their contribution.
- We challenge people, and trust them to rise to that challenge.
- We see the potential of individuals and communities, and support their development.
- We empower people to make choices and provide the information they need to inform those choices (including in the biographies which we ask presenters to provide).

Core Value: Expanding Jewish Horizons
- We strive to create individual, collective and communal experiences, through which we strengthen and develop our Jewish identity.

Core Value: Diversity
- We value the rich diversity among Jews, and so we seek to create cross-communal and intergenerational experiences.
- We value accessibility, and aim to be accessible to all.
- We value choice in form, content and style in our programs.
- We encourage people not to stereotype others.

Core Value: Community and Mutual Responsibility
- Limmud is a community of learning.
- We can achieve more together than we can individually.
- We gain from, and should give something back to, the Jewish and wider community.

Core Value: Arguments for the Sake of Heaven
- We recognize and appreciate that ‘arguments for the sake of heaven’ can make a positive contribution to furthering our education and understanding.
- We do not participate in legitimizing or de-legitimizing any religious or political position found in the worldwide Jewish community. Anyone coming to Limmud seeking opportunities for this will not find them. We have no part to play in the debates between/across denominations.
- Sessions which encourage vigorous debate are entirely acceptable but we will seek to avoid religious or political conflict. Sessions should be educational, and not polemical.

Core Value: Religious Observance
- We seek to create an inclusive environment for all participants whatever their religious observance practices.
- We believe in the importance of enabling Shabbat and kashrut to be kept in all public areas as far as possible, so that Jews do not have to separate themselves one from another.
- We recognize that in private areas, people will behave as they wish.
- We ask that in matters of Shabbat and kashrut all participants behave in a way which is respectful of the religious observance of others.

No matter where you are on the spectrum of Jewish living, there is more to learn and more to do at LimmudBoston.

Dear Friends:

It is with great pleasure that I am writing to you to wish mazel tov to everyone at Limmud Boston on this year’s Limmud event.

Limmud was launched more than 30 years ago in the UK and has now spread around the world. Limmud’s unique model of volunteer-led, cross-communal, multi-generational and transformational Jewish experiences is now truly global.

There are now 80 Limmud groups in 38 countries round the world. In 2013 there were over 50 Limmud events run by 3,000 volunteers with 25,000 participants, including first time events in Belarus, Peru and India. 2014 will see new events being planned or taking place in Vancouver, Italy, Haifa, Barcelona, Miami, Tel Aviv and the Czech Republic. These events are all inspired and supported by Limmud International, which provides training and support to Limmud groups all round the world. You can find out more about what we do at www.limmudinternational.org.

My congratulations, therefore, to the wonderful team of volunteers who have put so much effort into creating Limmud Boston this year and wish you a very successful event. I know how dedicated the teams are from having had the great pleasure of joining you last year, and I am only sorry not to be able to do so again this year. I have no doubt that this year’s event will see Limmud in Boston going from strength to strength.

With warmest wishes,
David Hoffman
Chair, Limmud International, December 2014

Dear Limmud Participants,

On behalf of Hebrew College, I am honored and pleased to welcome you to the fifth annual LimmudBoston. Building upon the success of the first four years of the program, LimmudBoston has created diverse opportunities for Jewish learning in the greater Boston area.

My own experience teaching at LimmudBoston and the experiences of my colleagues have reinforced for me the meaningfulness of this unique forum for Jewish study and engagement. The enthusiasm and thoughtfulness of the participants is inspiring and signals great hope for the Jewish future.

Hebrew College has been a partner with LimmudBoston from its inception. Steffi Aronson Karp, who also serves on Hebrew College’s Leadership Council, has shared her passion and vision with the entire community. Hebrew College is proud that our faculty, students and alumni learn and teach at LimmudBoston every year.

It is my sincere hope that LimmudBoston will whet your appetite for further Jewish study. Throughout the year, Hebrew College has a variety of exciting adult education programs and graduate studies that can deepen your Jewish learning. We have launched new classes and public events this year which will engage your mind and soul. Please visit our website at www.hebrewcollege.edu. May your Jewish study go from strength to strength.

B’vracha - with blessings,

Rabbi Daniel Lehmann
President
Shalom!

CJP is delighted to be a sponsor of LimmudBoston, and to be part of this vibrant Jewish learning experience! Boston’s CJP has a long history of excellent Jewish learning through adult learning programs such as Me’ah, Parenting Through a Jewish Lens and now Kevah, bringing personally meaningful, small-group Jewish learning to our community. As well, CJP is committed to vibrant Jewish learning for children through overnight camping, day schools and our work to transform supplementary schools through Jewish Learning Connections.

We are excited to welcome many teachers and educators from across the Greater Boston area to participate in all that LimmudBoston offers. Their involvement in both offering and attending sessions is a testament to the value of Jewish education in our community.

There are sessions throughout this program book marked “ED” (Education) that may be of particular interest to teachers and educators. Everyone is invited to attend any of these sessions, to learn from some of our community’s most innovative educators.

We wish everyone a wonderful day of learning, growth, and exploration!

Dear Participants in LimmudBoston:

Welcome to Mishkan Tefila. Our congregation is delighted to once again host the Boston Jewish community’s premier learning event, LimmudBoston 2014. We share Limmud’s dedication to egalitarian lifelong learning. Please take the opportunity of being in our building to visit our Library and historical Judaica collection in our Museum. We hope you will return often to visit, to pray, to study, and for public events.

Our thanks to the wonderful staff and volunteers of LimmudBoston 2014 for making this day of study a regular part of the community calendar.

Dear Fellow Learners:

In the Talmud we are taught,

"Do not say: I will read that I may be called wise, and study that I may be called a scholar; do it out of love, and honor will come at the end!"

—Talmud, Nedarim

Torah L’shma. Torah for its own sake. That’s what LimmudBoston is about, and that’s why hundreds of people have converged on Congregational Mishkan Tefila for this magnificent opportunity to learn and grow.

On behalf of the Synagogue Council of Massachusetts, I am privileged to add my voice to those who welcome you to LimmudBoston. A transdenominational, pluralistic organization representing more than 120 member congregations and minyanim, SCM is proud to be one of LimmudBoston’s original organizational co-sponsors.

I hope you will enjoy soaking up the learning, sitting at the feet of some of the area’s greatest teachers, enjoying the arts and culture that abounds at LimmudBoston and coming together with serious like-minded learners from throughout New England.

Please join me in expressing gratitude and admiration to Steffi Aronson Karp (who claims that the Synagogue Council was the inspiration for many of her pluralistic impulses), the leadership of LimmudBoston, our host Congregational Mishkan Tefila, and the large number of volunaticpants and sponsors who have made this amazing day possible.

L’immud,

FIND THE HIDDEN TREASURES:
EXPLORE MISHKAN TEFILA’S RUBENOVITZ MUSEUM

Established in 1940, the Rabbi Herman H. and Mignon L. Rubenovitz Museum and Archives is a gem to explore during LimmudBoston. See if you can answer the questions below about some Jewish ritual objects.

Answers at www.limmudboston.org.

THE TREASURE HUNT BEGINS HERE!

Walk around the museum to find out just which Jewish holidays are represented.

Question 1 - Can you list all the holidays represented and what items are connected to each holiday?

Question 2 - The Torah is read each week. How many times a week do we read from the Torah and when?

Each Torah scroll is made of parchment from a kosher animal. Writing of each Torah is done by hand. We try not to touch the parchment so it won’t wear out when we read from the Torah.

Question 3 - What do we use to point to words while reading from the Torah? What does this word mean?

Question 4 - What is the difference between a Sephardic Torah scroll and an Ashkenzic scroll? Which do most synagogues in America use?

Walk to the large case on the far left wall. Jewish communities all over the world use this ritual object to celebrate a holiday. Note that some of these are lit using oil and some with candles.

Question 5 - What is the name of the ritual object in this case? When is this used?

Question 6 - Some of these candelabras have 9 branches and some only have 7. Why?

Question 7 - Which countries are represented in this case?

Question 8 - Some of these are built small for travelling? Why?

Walk to the case that’s in the center of the back wall of the museum.

Question 9 - How many scrolls are there in this case? What is the name for this type of scroll? On what holiday is this scroll read? Do you know the story? What is the name of the other ritual object in this case that is also used for this same holiday? How is this object used?

Question 10 - How many spice boxes can you count in this case? When is this ritual object used? How is it used?

Engaging minds, nourishing souls
High school is an incredible time in the life of a young adult. These four years are about developing skills and gaining knowledge, yes, and they are also a time for growth, exploration, and for discovering who you are. Gann students inspire me with their intellectual drive, their ethical decision-making, their willingness to question, and their quest for answers from within and outside of the Jewish tradition.
